

Pre-Lesson Comprehension

Target Language: present progressive tense

Focus: You will learn the present progressive tense to talk about actions happening now and actions that happen regularly but haven't finished.

Read and understand the target language below.

We use the present progressive tense to talk about actions happening now. The structure is: be verb + present participle (verb -ing). Here are some examples:

- I am studying English (now).
- He is checking his dictionary (now).

We also use the present progressive tense to talk about longer actions happening now and haven't finished.

- Kate is studying every day for the test (recently).
- Bill is looking for a new house (these days).

Here are some negative examples. Negative sentences use: be verb + not + present participle (verb -ing).

- Becky is not sleeping now.
- They aren't taking a test now.
- He isn't working hard these days.
- I am not saving any money recently!

With questions, we use the following structures:

Closed Questions: be verb + subject + present participle (verb -ing)

Q: Are you studying English (now)?

A: Yes, I'm studying English (now). Please be quiet.

Open Questions: wh-question + be verb + subject + present participle (verb -ing)

Q: What are you studying these days?

A: I'm studying English, History, and Science. All of the classes are very difficult.

Pre-Lesson Practice

Target Language: present progressive tense

Practice: Now try some activities to help you use the target language.

Correct the mistakes with the present progressive tense. Then rewrite the sentences.

1: What are he doing now?

---

2: They is watching TV now.

---

3: I am look for a new computer these days.

---

Read and practice the conversation. Circle the present progressive tense.

Will: Is that Stacy? What is she doing?

James: She's studying for her big test.

Will: She never studies! When is her test?

James: Her test is tomorrow. She's studying a lot these days because she's failing her class.

Will: She looks very tired.

James: She studies from morning until night. She's drinking a lot of coffee to stay awake!

Will: I hope she does well!

Answers

Target Language: present progressive tense

Correct the mistakes with the present progressive tense. Then rewrite the sentences.

- 1: What is he doing now.
- 2: They are watching TV now.
- 3: I am looking for a new computer these days.

Read and practice the conversation. Circle the present progressive tense.

Will: Is that Stacy? What is she doing?

James: She's studying for her big test.

Will: She never studies! When is her test?

James: Her test is tomorrow. She's studying a lot these days because she's failing her class.

Will: She looks very tired.

James: She studies from morning until night. She's drinking a lot of coffee to stay awake!

Will: I hope she does well!